

Byeongyong "B. Paul" Choi, Ph.D., is a professor at the Howard University School of Business. He joined the Department of Finance, International Business and Insurance in 2002, after serving as Instructor at Temple University, Philadelphia, PA. His primary research areas of interest include: market structure, performance and efficiency, liquidity creation, and international insurance. Choi is also currently serving as director of Center for Insurance Education.

Choi has received a number of awards and distinctions including Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) 2001, best in track award, outstanding research award, and several research grants. Choi has served as Faculty Advisor of Gamma Iota Sigma, Director of Summer Actuarial Program and Instructor of Actuarial Study Program. He is also currently serving as a director of Center for Insurance Education. He is a member of Board of Directors of Academy of Finance and an editorial board member of Risks and Journal of Finance Issues. Choi holds a Ph.D. from Temple University, Philadelphia, PA.