

Vinson J. Hustvedt-Camacho, Assoc. AIA

Co-Founder, Managing Principal

Vinson-Bert J. Hustvedt-Camacho, Managing Principal and Co-Founder of PUSHstudio, LLC in Washington, DC has a devotion to interdisciplinary design efforts, focusing on the multi-layered built environment at the intersection of landscape and architecture. Hustvedt-Camacho manages studio operations and all visual and technical aspects of the practice.

With diverse experience in architecture and urban design, Hustvedt-Camacho has led many of the urban and community related projects in the office. He is inspired by the public, urban, social, and human (P.U.S.H) issues that construct the modern built-environment.

As a place specific methodology for urban practice, he is invested in the idea of cultural forms and social justice as a means of creating a more human, equitable and interactive urban environment at all scales.

Hustvedt-Camacho enhances PUSHstudio services with over 20 years of private practice experience in architecture, landscape architecture and urban design.

Vinson has had a leading role on many of the monument and memorial projects such as the Phi Beta Sigma and Zeta Phi Beta Centennial monuments on the Howard University campus.
